

Leaving a Bequest in your Will

West Australian Opera invites you to join the Bequest Circle by including a gift in your Will to your state opera company.

As a not-for-profit organisation, every contribution is vital to helping us bring notes of music to life, support young talent, bring world class opera to the stage, take opera to the regions and let voices soar in schools across our state.

By choosing to include a bequest in your Will, you join a passionate group of like-minded people who help make the remarkable possible by supporting the great music and stories we love to share.

Your existing Will

If you already have a Will, you can make an amendment or codicil (an amendment to an existing Will) to include West Australian Opera.

Creating a Will

If you are creating a Will, we invite you to consider including West Australian Opera.

Bequest wording

You may like to consider including the following (or similar):

I give to West Australian Opera (Level 3, His Majesty's Theatre, 825 Hay Street, PERTH 6000) for its general purposes [indicate amount as dollar value or percentage, item, or property] and declare that the receipt of the Chairman or Executive Director of West Australian Opera will be sufficient discharge to my Executor.

Advice of your support

You may wish to let us know that you have made a bequest. You can do this by completing the bequest form here and you are welcome to provide an extract from your Will relating to your bequest intentions.

Acknowledging your bequest

Your bequest is a very personal decision. Members of our Bequest Circle are recognised and celebrated in company listings and marketing collateral, unless you indicate that you wish to remain anonymous.
